Junction City or Forbindelestaad, which ever way you choose to call it, English or Scandinavian, the friendly faces, fresh air, and wide open spaces is what Junction City residents are most proud of. If you are interested in living in a small community with the big city access, then you have come to the right place. Junction City is located 14 miles north of Eugene on Highway 99W. While committed to the quality of life available in a rural environment, Junction City is eager to welcome new residents and new businesses. Friendly people, rich in traditions and a deep sense of service, characterize the people of this area.

How to get here...

From Portland - Heading south on I-5, take exit 209 Diamond Hill. Head west on Diamond Hill Road following the farming fields along this five-mile drive into the town of Harrisburg. Turn west on Territorial Road crossing both sets of railroad tracks. Drive through Harrisburg and head south on Highway 99E. Cross the bridge over the Willamette River entering Lane County. Junction City is four miles south of the river.

From Roseburg - Head north on I-5, take exit 195B Ocean Beaches, Florence, Junction City, & Airport. This exit puts you on Beltline Highway heading west. Continue heading west on Beltline for four miles to the exit heading north on Highway 99, marked Airport, Junction City. Follow state Highway 99 to Junction City, 9 miles to the north.

Nearby Areas of Interest

Drift boating, water skiing, sailing, fishing, camping and hiking opportunities are all within 30 minutes. Junction City can rightfully boast of wonderful biking roads for both avid bicyclist and the weekend enthusiast. A hundred mile loop is mapped out on state highways. The less ambitious cyclist will be delighted with shorter scenic routes. Also within an hour and a half is the wonderful Oregon National Dunes recreational area outside of Florence on the Pacific Ocean. Within 2 to 3 hours you can have your choice of fine snow parks for downhill and cross country skiing including: HooDoo Ski Bowl east of Springfield, Willamette Pass Ski Resort outside of Oakridge, and Mt. Bachelor in Bend.

Schools

One of Junction City's premier assets, the public schools strive for excellence in every area of education. With parent and community involvement a priority, the Junction City public schools view the pursuit of excellence in education as a minimum standard. The Junction City School Board of seven local elected patrons oversees four schools with a total enrollment of over 1,800 students.
