Junction City or Forbindelestaad, whichever way you choose to call it, English or Scandinavian, the friendly faces, fresh air, and wide-open spaces is what Junction City residents are most proud of. If you are interested in living in a small community with the big city access, then you have come to the right place. Junction City is located 14 miles north of Eugene on Highway 99W. While committed to the quality of life available in a rural environment, Junction City is eager to welcome new residents and new businesses. Friendly people, rich in traditions and a deep sense of service, characterize the people of this area.

How to get here...

From Portland – Head south on I5, take exit 209 Diamond Hill. Head west on Diamond Hill Road following the farming fields along this five-mile drive into the town of Harrisburg. Turn west on Territorial Road crossing both sets of railroad tracks. Enjoy your drive through beautiful Harrisburg, continuing south on Highway 99E, crossing the bridge over the spanning the Willamette River where you enter Lane County. Junction City is four miles south of the river.

From Roseburg – Head north on I5, take exit 195B Ocean Beaches, Florence, Junction City, & Airport. This exit puts you on Beltline Highway heading west. Continue west on Beltline for four miles to the exit heading north on Highway 99, marked Airport, Junction City. Follow Highway 99 to Junction City, a short 9-mile drive to the north.

Nearby Areas of Interest

Drift boating, water skiing, sailing, fishing, camping and hiking opportunities are all within 30 minutes. Junction City can rightfully boast of wonderful biking roads for both avid bicyclist and the weekend enthusiast. A hundred-mile loop is mapped out on state highways. The less ambitious cyclist will be delighted with shorter scenic routes. Within an hour and a half is the wonderful Oregon National Dunes recreational area near Florence on the Pacific Ocean. Or as close as 2 to 3 hours, you can have your choice of fine snow parks for downhill and cross-country skiing including: Hoodoo Ski Resort east of Springfield, Willamette Pass Ski Resort outside of Oakridge, and Mt. Bachelor in Bend.

Scandinavian Festival – mid August annually www.junctioncityscandia.org

Scandinavian Festival Association, PO Box 5, Junction City, OR 97448 Phone: 541.998.9372
Since 1961, the people of Junction City have been celebrating their rich Scandinavian heritage by transforming their downtown area into a charming Old-World town. Offering cultural entertainment and activities in the authentic Scandinavian spirit, this four-day event pays homage to the cultures of Denmark, Finland, Norway, and Sweden. Where you prefer to participate or to watch, the festival offers a variety of events for the whole family. Free admission with over 100 food and craft booths. Three stages with performers daily. Attendance is over 150,000 each year.
